Meals:

All meals from supper Friday evening to lunch on Sunday are included in the registration fee. Every effort is made to select foods that will appeal to a wide variety of people. Additionally, at their own expense, participants can supplement their meals or purchase snacks in the nearby town of Slave Lake where there are several stores and restaurants to choose from.

Meals for Wildcrafted Colour: Dyeing with Invasive Plants will include continental breakfasts at the Nest, lunches catered by The Fix Café, and dinners catered by Tony's Custom Catering.

If you have food allergies, please provide the information in the space below:

Accommodations:

Accommodations are included in the registration fee. The Nest Comfort Camping is a timber-frame building with 6 bedrooms; 2 have queen-sized beds and the other 4 have twin-sized bunks. The queen sized bedrooms are available at a higher cost to those participants who would prefer not to have a roommate, and will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Please call the Alberta Parks Slave Lake District Office at (780) 849-7100 to check on availability of the queen bed rooms.

If you're in a shared room, see below to designate a roommate if you know someone else who is coming and you'd like to share the bedroom with them. If you leave it blank we will assign a roommate for you.
