PARK NOTES

What is the reservation process?

Group Day Use Areas A (East) and B (Centre) are available for reservation. Area C (West) will remain available for public use on a first-come, first-served basis (see map on reverse). Contact the Fish Creek Provincial Park Office for more information or to book your site by telephone (403-297-5293) or in person at the Bow Valley Ranch Visitor Centre (15979 Bow Bottom Trail SE, Calgary, Alberta).

What is the fee for reserving an area?

The rental fee is $78.00 plus a non-refundable $12.00 deposit, made payable BY CHEQUE ONLY to the Minister of Finance. Payments can be mailed to the Fish Creek Provincial Park Office at Box 2780, Calgary, Alberta T2P 2M7 or dropped off at the Visitor Centre at 15979 Bow Bottom Trail SE. Calgary, Alberta.

After reserving the area, how do I open the gate to access the area?

After required payment and registration has been completed, a lock combination will be issued to the contact person and users can open the gate and access the site during the posted hours of operation. We require that you keep the gate closed at all times and discreetly provide the combination to your group to prevent other users from entry.

What should I do if someone is already at the area?

The reservable areas are some distance from the public parking area, so there is little chance of encountering another group. There may be users who have walked or biked to your area, but prominently displayed signage indicates the area is by reservation only and Park Conservation Officers have the authority to evict other users.

Glennfield is a treasured outdoor facility area that provides the community with a natural space for large group use. The Park hopes you enjoy your visit.
