Prairie Creek Provincial Recreation Area, located in the foothills roughly 40 kilometres southwest of Rocky Mountain House, provides overnight camping and group use facilities. The area’s rustic campground is equipped with 50 campsites, fire pits and washrooms. Camping is available on a “first come-first served” basis; group use is available by reservation only.

There is fishing for trout and mountain whitefish in Prairie Creek and there are informal off-highway vehicle and snowmobile trails in the vicinity (OHV/snowmobile off-loading within the recreation area is prohibited).
