Park Ranger Application Process

Visit the Government of Alberta Jobs webpage in December for the Park Ranger job posting

Submit your resume before the close of the competition

If you are invited for an interview

Interviews are typically held in mid-January to mid-February. At the time of interview:
- Submit all required documentation
- Provide PARE certification with a time of 4:45 or less (refer to instructions in job posting)

Applicants may be slated for a location at any time during these stages

If successful in the interview:
- Slated for a location
  - Complete requirements for the recruitment process:
    - Submit an acceptable Criminal Record Check
    - Submit outstanding documentation
  - OR
- Not yet slated for a location

Scheduled for a Psychological Assessment

If assessment is within the suitable range

Job offer letter

PARE: refers to the “Physical Abilities Requirement Evaluation”.

Slated: means the candidate is placed/designated for a particular location while remaining documentation, assessments, and reference checks are being submitted. Once these requirements are met the program will be in a position to provide a job offer letter. An initial placement can occur within a couple of weeks following the interview, however ongoing placements of applicants occurs up until April. If you have not yet been placed continue to submit documentation as placements are likely to open up.

Updated December 2, 2016