

Park Interpreter and Communicator Application Process

Interviews are full-day workshops conducted in-person only.

Successful candidates must be able to attend the training workshop typically held in the first week of May.